High Holiday Ticket Policy

The following policy was approved at the June 25, 2017 meeting of the Board of Directors of The Jewish Center, Princeton:

1. That in all High Holiday materials congregants be informed of the reciprocity of High Holiday tickets if their family member is a member in good standing of another congregation. A letter/email from that congregation will be required for tickets.
2. That for all adult children ages 26 and under High Holiday tickets will be included in the family membership
3. That for all adult children above that age members will need to purchase tickets.
4. TJC family guest ticket price $75 for a Rosh Hashanah ticket, $75 for a Yom Kippur ticket. Tickets will need to be paid for prior to the Holiday.
5. TJC guests (non family members) who live more than a 50 miles away radius from TJC ages 21 and over. $75 per ticket for Rosh Hashanah and $75 per ticket for Yom Kippur.
6. Non TJC members $360 package ticket for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. If the non TJC member joins TJC within 6 months this ticket cost will be part of their membership fees.
